On December 15th, 2018, ROBLOX announced the end of the open beta for their new trading system. The company removed the ability to trade in-game currency among users and limited users' ability to purchase system currency from outside sources while adding even more security features by requiring cards or other forms of identification before buying virtual currency. The reason for the change was to prevent users from spending too much virtual currency on outside purchases of no value to the user. The system was a success, reducing the rate of fraud.[25]

Roblox is involved in a lawsuit concerning child safety on the Internet. On September 17, 2010, two brothers filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court, Southern District of California against Roblox Corporation and its founder and CEO David Baszucki. The suit alleged that the defendants failed to protect their nine- and thirteen-year-old sons from inappropriate content on Roblox that resulted in emotional distress. The suit also accuses the company of negligence for failure to monitor potentially harmful content and failure to institute parental monitoring measures. The case is known as "McDonald v. Roblox".

Some other ways that these generators get more traffic is through sending out promotional codes on social media sites like Twitter or Facebook while also using email marketing techniques.

On December 20, 2016, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

In July 2018, Roblox had allegedly banned several high-profile creators due to the fact they made violent games. Although Roblox claims users were banned "due to improper behaviour" nothing has been proven yet. The situation is occurring in many forums and websites. In July 2018, ROBLOX put out a statement saying that they did not ban any creators, but instead were involved in a legal dispute with the people who claimed to have been banned.[82] They later said that anyone who was banned for making offensive content was "part of an organized effort by bad actors to scam our users. We have no tolerance for this behavior and we're doing everything we can to protect our community." [83]
