The founder of ROBLOX is David Baszucki as a 13-year-old boy in 1996. He was a freshman at Palo Alto High School in Palo Alto, California and had been working on a computer program that was similar to ROBLOX called "Pyxis". He worked with his friend Owen Hill to create new ideas for the program until it became possible for others to play the game without downloading any additional software.

The next games that would allow users to invite others into their worlds were Habbo Hotel where they had their FriendBook and later on also added a FriendChat system in December of 2011, Club Penguin where you could invite fellow penguins into your world, and Mario8 since 2014.

ROBLOX is the first game to allow players to create actual games that you can play online by using either a physical controller or just your keyboard. [124] The next game that would allow users to do this was Parkour Paradise on August 16th of 2012. [125]
