This game features eight "coin tokens" which represent fruits, vegetables, and animals. Players collect these coins during the gameplay to earn points in the game. Three of the coins are represented by card illustrations; these coins are more likely to be found in chest rather than buried in the ground as with coins with illustrations of humans and animals. There are currently five sets available; one set is for each type of coin (four sets for negative coins and three sets for positive coins) giving a total of twenty-eight characters.",

A spin-off title for iOS devices called "Coin Master: Dig Deep" has been released by United Pixelworkers and is available to play online on any compatible browser or directly through an app designed for iPad, iPhone and iPod Touch. This title was released as a limited time premium version with more in-app purchases which included more levels and content. The PC version of this title has also been released on Steam and is available to download directly from within the Steam application or from its store page. This title is similar to "Coins & Curses 2" except that it includes more in-game content.", Good but annoying by Mudda on 2015/04/04 20:05 I really like this game except for the fact that there are ads every time you do anything. You can also only have one game completed at a time otherwise if you put it down to go do something else and come back you have to start all over with your puzzles again. Great concept but needs some work because I had to delete this app because of the ads, which is very unfortunate because this is one of the only good word games out there.", Users have criticized Coin Master for its monotony and reliance on making users pay real money to progress in the game. A user review on iTunes complains that it is "just another collect-a-thon with a coin motif". The developer of Coin Master has countered this criticism by stating that they do not believe in "pay to win" video games and hope to provide their users with a fun and engaging experience.",

Great game by Big_Doofy on 2014/12/14 21:02 This is the best game ever. It's very addictive and fun to play. I usually play this while I'm bored and waiting for commercials to end during my tv show or when I'm bored. But, sometimes if there is an add, the add doesn't go away until you watch it even if you swipe it away. But other than that this is a great app!",
