On December 30th, 2011, Roblox sent a DMCA notice to Awaited Studios to take down "Infinity: The Quest to the End of the Universe" after noticing that they were releasing code from ROBLOX in their game. Since then, the company has kept all of its released code in a separate source file called "robux".

In 2011 the Roblox company sponsored an event at the Children's Museum of Pittsburgh to raise money for charity (Charity Water). This was called Roblox Builders Club: Project Builder which raised over $3,000 for charity water.

On September 13, 2016, ROBLOX launched its tenth birthday party along with an event called BLOXtober. The purpose of this annual event is to celebrate ROBLOX's birthday and give players badges for completing The Admin's tasks every day until October 15th. The badge is called BLOXtagger and can be worn on your profile for the year. The tasks were also modified to let you earn the badges by simply logging in every day.

If you do not already have a badge, then you will gain one once you have logged in every day for two days consecutively. At the end of BLOXtober, ROBLOX held a contest called RoblXtheRave, where people were given a chance to win a large sum of money in cash by answering trivia questions that were asked throughout October 11th-13th.

On December 20, 2016, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.

Most YouTube videos will give you a link that will provide you with a free Robux reward. The amount depends on how many views the video has and the number of subscribers the user has. For example, if an account has over 1 million subscribers, they'll give an extra 2,000 robux for any views that would put them over 10,000,000 views; however this only applies before rewards are scaled down.
