ROBLOX is also one of the first websites to allow users to play multiplayer games with each other using video chat (most notably Skype). Over the course of the game, players can interact and communicate with each other through 'conversations'. ROBLOX also used Skype for video chat in many of their games. Some unofficial ports of ROBLOX that are based on Build include Mac OS X, Xbox 360, iOS and Raspberry Pi. The Raspberry Pi port allows users to use a Kinect sensor or USB webcam. Mac OS X includes ROBLOX support built into the client and includes limited support for input from keyboards and mice using DirectInput, as well as support for NVIDIA 3D Vision.

In the ROBLOX Studio game, you can publish a game that contains the Free Builder's Club item and make it for sale. You will receive 50% of the profit from every sale (however, if someone buys your item and then buys it again later on with their own Robux or Builder's Club, you will not receive any more money).

As well, if you are interested in getting free robux without having to spend real money, then this is a really cool option that should be used by all of the players. It will work perfectly without any problems after some time has passed by and that will allow you to have enough free robux so you can buy cool items or invest in some cool weapons.

Roblox has been criticized for bombing players with harassing messages that appear on screen. In 2013, The Washington Post claimed that they were able to set up a fake email address in order to send players fake emails. On November 29, 2018, it was announced that they had removed the ability for players to send fake messages and that they were working on a new update that would do this.

In late 2015, ROBLOX introduced ChatPads. These ChatPads function like keyboards for players with a webcam. The players can use a webcam to talk with each other as well as guests while playing the game. However, there are no audio chat functions. One feature of the new chatpads is that if you lock your screen when playing game, it will automatically unlock when you tab out from games to bring up your keyboard and chatpad features.
