Users actually generally hate ads on ROBLOX, but they do them anyway for their own benefit and gain. Ads are actually a great way of generating revenue for ROBLOX, mostly because they only show up when you have enough money to be annoyed with the ads.

ROBLOX also offers a plugin system similar to most other websites that can give access to nearly all items on its website, except for things like accounts and global objects like chat rooms. Plugin developers can add their own items to ROBLOX through a GUI. However, this is only for private-use plugins and is not available to the public.

HelloRoblox2 works in almost the same way as HelloRoblox. It sends you robux once you've uploaded a video on YouTube. However, there is a slight difference. HelloRoblox2 has been around for a while, and because of this, the robux it can send are easier to get. It generally only sends out 100-200 robux per day. This works out to about 1 free robux per week. If you're in a hurry, HelloRoblox2 is probably better than HelloRoblox.

I love how you can play with your friends but I wish that it was easier to make friends, and I also think that there should be more options to choose from when it comes to picking a skin, and I also wish that there were more games with different kinds of genres like horror or even some kitty games for cute lovers.

On July 19, 2018, ROBLOX launched a new mobile app called ROBLOX Mini. It is aimed towards kids below the age of 6 years old. It allows players to play mini games as well as create items for their mini-game and have a catalog of characters to dress up as.[50]
