There were a lot of concerns about Robux before the update that made it easier for players to get it, but some people still believe that Robux is manipulative and favors the developers. In the "review" section, people criticize the developers for doing what they wanted to do and not caring about what people think.

On July 1, 2018, ROBLOX began making all of its games free-to-play with a subscription option called "Roblox Pass" that allows users to keep playing their favorite games without having to pay anything after their trial period is over. It will be put on a student's school/work computer and will include ROBLOX STUDENT only games (e.g. ROBLOX High School & ROBLOX High School Life). The "Roblox Pass" feature is only available to users on the official ROBLOX website and all other versions of the game will have to be paid for.

No microtransactions. Roblox does not have any in-game purchases or microtransactions, meaning that you can play as much as you want without worrying about being charged each time. This works very well as the developers have a different way to monetize their system - which we'll discuss further on into this review.
