In August 2021, a former employee posted a blog post detailing the company's "toxic" work culture and poor working conditions. The employee claimed that she was fired after speaking out about these issues and later filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the company as well as several co-workers associated with her firing. The suit, which for the most part was dismissed, claimed that former CEO David Baszucki played an integral role in her firing as he forced the team to "ignore basic standards of professionalism". It also cited him for saying that "female workers in [his] office and in the tech industry were 'annoying' and should not serve in a high-ranking position."
