On March 18th, 2019, ROBLOX announced that they were working on a system that would allow them to detect bot accounts and confiscate accounts from them.[31]On April 25th, 2019, ROBLOX announced "Secure Trading" again as they would require players to use their respective Facebook page accounts for trading purposes. As of June 15th, 2019, ROBLOX will still allow customers from around the world to trade with other users without requiring Facebook. [32]

A serious game should be fun whether you spend money on it or not. The developer should not make a profit from people who don't care about winning but rather just want to play and have fun. If there is real value in the game then it can sustain itself through micro transactions that offer cosmetic enhancements only, by providing new texture patterns, color schemes, new props, etcetera.

Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from Good for kids My son loves this game! It helps him study for his tests and play with his friends. His favorite part is that the creators have set everything up so that parents can control what their children see online.

In 2010, ROBLOX updated their entire website to match the current version of their branding. The new design was made to be sharper and cleaner than the former one, and removed many visual effects that were seen as archaic and dated. A few key features of this change include a slightly larger "R", as well as a background shape for it similar to that of a "double-r", which ended up being used for every future iteration of the logo. This design is still used on the website today, albeit with variations in how it is utilized.

In early 2016, Roblox released an update that removed the "Customize" section from the User Interface. This introduced a new UI, which can be viewed here: Roblox Main Page. The new UI has many features that were previously built into the program such as a Store and a Help area.
