In 2006 Moon Active released Coin Master for Game Boy Advance as part of their "Coin Masters" series. In this version of the game the player is presented with several flat screens and tasked with maneuvering 14 coins through each screen. Like the original Coin Master, once a coin reaches the exit door, that screen will be cleared of coins and new ones will begin. In addition to this time-based gameplay element, completing certain tasks with each level can unlock a variety of power-ups including 4 different types of bombs that can be used to clear out large areas of coins.

Unlike its Game Boy Advance predecessor, this version was released only in Japan.", It's a really good game by Smooshie on 2019/01/13 17:05 The game has great rewards and I like how it helps with your brain and teaches you math which is pretty cool because it shows you some cool patterns. The problem with this game in my opinion is that there are glitches in the app where if you get attacked your back gets "stuck" to where it can't move away from there. Also I think in my opinion of the game after you get used to it and learn all the moves it starts getting easier and boring. Also with the coins, I feel like there should be some free ways to make more money without having to pay real cash. Like when you log on or maybe even watch some videos for more coins. Overall it's a really good game.",

Good game but needs improvement by Blazinjoe on 2017/11/01 00:52 The idea for this game is great! It's really fun and all but there's a few things that need to be fixed. First off, you guys should make it so that when someone asks for a gift, the person who asked the question can see who is sending them gifts. I know this sounds kinda petty but I've been on here a while and have had this issue more than once and it's just plain annoying to have people leave you hanging by not giving you what you asked for when they accept the request. There's also something in game chat that needs to be fixed. In game chat lags way too much and it's really annoying. And lastly, please make it so people can say "thank you" to each other when they receive gifts or spins etc... I personally love this app and I would rate it 5 stars but these things should be fixed.",
