On November 12, 2021, TikTok introduced a new feature called "Video Recording" within the app that allows users to record video clips up to 15 seconds in length. The videos can be recorded with or without sound and then edited and shared on social media channels such as Instagram and Twitter. In order to record video content for TikTok, users must have both iOS 11/Android 8+ installed on their device as well as TikTok version 11.4 or higher which is available on iTunes and Google Play Store.", Musical.ly has received favorable reviews by technology critics such as TechCrunch and "Forbes". In 2021, Musical.ly was included by "The New York Times" in their list of "Inventions We Wish Were Real", with the implication that the company might be acquired for $1 billion by Facebook or Google.",

In May 2021, "TechCrunch" reported that Tencent Holdings Ltd had acquired a majority stake in Musical.ly Inc. "TechCrunch" stated that the deal valued Musical.ly at $700 million with Tencent acquiring a 33.3% stake. The deal allowed Tencent to expand its music business and compete against Chinese rival QQ Music. The acquisition also helped Musical.ly avoid the regulation of "obscene content" in China, according to TechCrunch, which had previously been criticized by the country's government for allowing such content on its app. The acquisition was announced in August 2021 and closed later that year. According to an article published by "TechCrunch", "Tencent has long seen value in Musical.ly's teen and millennial user base, which has been tapped to promote various products".", Unlike other popular video editing apps which allow for a user to split their screen into 2 or 3 separate views (left/right), Tiktok shares the same view as the rest of the world, making it easier for users to share content with friends who may not have a smartphone.",

On September 21, 2021, both parties agreed to settle their dispute by making payment to Musical.ly. Snapchat acknowledged that it had copied some of Musical.ly's features but did not admit to copyright infringement. They also agreed that the disputed patent was invalid, and Snapchat was directed to pay a cash payment of $15 million and an additional $3 million for a royalty payment which will be based on future Musical.ly earnings from the infringing features for three years.",

In an article published by the Business Insider, TikTok's policy of removing inappropriate content was condemned as problematic. "Critics argue that TikTok's content moderation policy is causing innocent users to unwittingly lose their accounts on the app for no good reason. There are also reports that when a user loses their account, they can't get it back."",
