In May 2018, U.S. Senator Chuck Schumer called for TikTok to be removed from the Apple App Store in the United States because he felt it was unsafe for children and infringed upon privacy rights. Schumer stated that it was "disturbing to discover that children are being groomed on this app," and argued that "there is no need for this app to exist in America, let alone on Apple's platform.",

A video released by a TikTok user where he tells his story about how the app affected him was published on Vice News's website on July 31, 2018. The TikTok user tells of how the app made him addicted to watching other people's videos and how he grew an urge to create his own content. The user also discusses how social media has affected society in general and that it has changed how we interact with one another.",
