The app is available for iOS and Android devices. The app offers videos that users can record themselves, add filters and music and post publicly or privately to the app. Users can also create custom stickers and can accompany their videos with animated emoji called "TikTok" which are meant to express emotions such as laughter or sadness. The company uses artificial intelligence in its video recommendation algorithms to help users find popular videos, allowing them to engage with each other's content as well.", TikTok allows you to share your video's with your friends, relatives and fans through various social platforms like Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. The videos are easily shared with any friend or group of friends by sending a direct link or QR code to them in a matter of seconds. In addition, you can also add music to the videos which are saved in your device. The app also allows you to create and join group conversations on TikTok. You can invite new members to the group anywhere with a click of a button by sending them a request for joining the group.",

The app shares data with third parties including Yahoo, Facebook, Twitter and Google if it is available through the users' social media accounts that they use to sign in to TikTok. These partnerships allow users to share content on other social media channels such as Instagram or Facebook without having to leave the TikTok app itself.",

The following is an example of acceptable and inappropriate content that can be found on TikTok: In January 2019, TikTok removed a short video of Chinese millennials dancing on the street which had been uploaded by a popular group called "Loud Crew". The group uploaded 14 videos to TikTok, and soon after they were removed twice for infringing on copyright laws. A spokesperson from Shanghai authorities said that they had "strictly" enforced copyright laws on access to music videos and screen shots which are not authorised by the owners. The following video is considered inappropriate for young children because it shows adults taking shots and smoking while sitting on a couple of young boys. The adults involved are the child's parents, and the context in which all this occurs is not clear from the video.",

1. The first screenshot tells us about how the layout of TikTok works. It keeps users locked in a loop where they're forced to either watch videos or create videos on the app. 2. The second screenshot talks about the loading time of TikTok, which is reported to be quite long even though it's supposed to load within seconds (the video should load under 10 seconds). For the people who are using older smartphones, it'll take even longer for them to load it and even render it as a result.",
