On February 16th, 2018, ROBLOX's main Twitter account was hacked by a group that goes by the name "RIP Roblox." This prompted some users to make spam on the forums. The group also hacked ROBLOX's official Twitch page. They claimed to be doing this because they found a security glitch that allows them to bypass site security and touch other people's accounts to steal their virtual currency.[19] They later stated that they were done with their attack and did not release the method of how they were able to bypass ROBLOX's security, as ROBLOX did not provide them with any compensation.

Over the years, ROBLOX has used advertising to generate revenue for their company, which they generate through in-game purchases (microtransactions) or advertisements (which can be annoying for the players). In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.

Afterwards, ROBLOX began taking action on these cases and will be using an automated system to monitor all transactions for suspicious activity. [43]ROBLOX has also been known to restrict the number of items that a player can sell. This is because many people would sell off too much of their collection to gain more currency, which can make it harder for other players to find popular items.[44]

On October 8, 2017, they released a video showing large amounts of bugs and glitches in the game Frostbite. These include several bugs that allow for players to place guns and kill other players in mere seconds. ROBLOX said on their blog that this was due to an "incorrectly prepared prize package" but later stated that it was an error during a new update of their "Prototype Editor", which was supposed to have fixed the issues, but evidently did not.
