The game's art-style was inspired by the 8-bit imagery of 1980s games, as well as by paintings and sculptures from the time. The artwork for the coin characters was based on photographs from real coins. The process of designing each coin character took around one hundred man hours. The game is built on a framework of Unity. It was written in C# for iOS, UnityEngine.dll for Android, and Monkey X (Monkey Engine) for PC versions.",

In 2018 Moon Active released Coin Master for Apple iOS and Google Android as a paid app ($3.99) that can be downloaded from Apple App Store and Google Play Store respectively. This version of the game is ad-free and has all future updates to Coin Master included in the price of the app. The developer stated that he hopes to release new updates monthly through 2019.",

There are even leaderboards where we can view other players' statistics. Simply start a new game, then enter your name, and your stats will be added to the online leaderboard. Your score will consist of the number of chains, the longest chain number, how many times you've ended a chain by flipping heads or tails, and how many flips you've completed. There are plenty of achievements to unlock and challenges to prove that you're the best!",

On February 8, 2019, Moon Active released Coin Master: Puss in Boots "(Kasegi 2: Bukini no Tane)" for iOS as a free app (it is not available on Android).
