On November 1, 2021, Roblox was officially sued for copyright infringement by Joshua Moskowitz, also known as "Dr. J". The lawsuit was filed in Los Angeles Superior Court and details how parts of "The Maze Runner" were used to create a ROBLOX game called "The Maze." The lawsuit alleges that Dr. J is notifying every author use of his game engine to give them the opportunity to either take down their games or have a section added to his website.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

Roblox provides wireless headsets in the form of headphones and microphones. This enables players to communicate through the game, chat with other Roblox users, and play games with other players. In some online games, players are able to play "mini-games" such as "Horseball" that involve shooting a ball across the screen to attack another player. However, in Roblox, mini-games give physical feedback from hitting objects in the game world; for example, when they jump off a ledge in an abandoned mine shaft.

In 2021, a study concluded that children under 15 years old had made up 38% of Roblox purchases, which was far less than the games with similar genres such as "Minecraft" or "Grand Theft Auto". However, the study also concluded that players over 15 years old had made up 56% of Roblox purchases. This is because they have more money and influence. In addition, the study reported that Roblox is being used for a variety of purposes such as learning about engineering and architecture.
