Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

In January 2017, Roblox permanently banned all accounts that were created by Arielle De La Rosa. The company said it was because of her "continued behavior", which included actions such as creating Emily Roe and harassing other users, as mentioned above. Although she had been blocked from Roblox for over a year, they said their original ban for her had been lifted in November 2016. They also stated that she could no longer be unblocked on their platform because of previous harassment reports against other players. The ban was not for her actions, but instead because of the continued harassment she had done.
