For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

Due to its age, ROBLOX games often contain bugs and glitches; it can be difficult to get rid of these glitches. Some users have even taken to modifying the game engine to bypass some of these bugs, as well as creating their own games and uploading them to Roblox without permission.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for lacking any kind of quality assurance for its games. There have been many issues with the quality of some games and many users have complained that their game descriptions are not accurate. The site is also frustratingly inconsistent in the manner it deals with things like this, often banning users who complain about bugs and glitches within their games but not actually banning anyone who commits an illegal act, such as copying someone else's game and selling it without permission.

Premium game mechanics can also be implemented in free games. However, due to the fact that all premium features are only available in Builder's Club, in most cases they will if there is no way for the developer to observe this from a third-party mod or script perspective, then it can only be done via a Builders Club Premium.[54]

Another thing I like about Roblox is how inclusive it is. I have learned that all players are welcome to play in this game, and this includes all ages and genders. This can help people meet new people with similar interests as well as find a way to communicate with others online. One time when I played Roblox, I was able to play a game that was very similar to the popular game Fortnite. This is very fun for people who enjoy playing Fortnite because they can play a similar game for free! It also gives people an opportunity to try something new and different while still being able to meet new people online.
