In August 2021, a viral meme was launched by several TikTok accounts that encouraged young people to post videos of themselves performing a dangerous stunt known as "demon" upon becoming an adult. The tactic has been used in the past to convince young people to take their own lives, and would become known as "self-harm video". The meme also includes a message that urges viewers to stop watching these videos, while encouraging those who have already started watching them to "be responsible" and "stop before it's too late".",

At the end of 2021, Hot video launched a new update that added the mode "GIF" to TikTok FYP. Unlike the previous version, GIF is a motion photo app while TikTok FYP is a motion short video app. Unlike TikTok FYP's 15 sec-long motion video, GIF can be created up to 6 seconds long and can be shared with friends on both social media accounts and through text messages. This allows users to record videos on their phone and then convert them into GIFs using the app. Users are also able to view and follow other people's GIFs without having to follow them on Instagram or Snapchat. The conversion is called "GIF View". Another benefit of this update is it allows users to create their GIFs directly into the app without having to download a separate application.", Musical.ly is headquartered in Beverly Hills, California with offices in Hangzhou, China as well as in London and Hong Kong. The company also has a "See Inside" virtual tour of all Musical.ly's headquarters which was published during the 2021 annual shareholders' meeting on April 27, 2021; alongside overviews of Musical.ly's Silicon Valley and London offices as well as a picture of Musical.ly's mid-sized office in Hong Kong.",

In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "According to the complaint, the app has "a business model based on collecting and exploiting personal information" for commercial benefit. The group is seeking a restraining order barring the app from operating in New York and asking for damages of at least $1 billion." This article was published on TechCrunch.",

In the past, there were rumors about the possible acquisition of TikTok by any of the major tech companies in the world. In February 2021, it was reported that Microsoft is currently pursuing a software deal with TikTok. The talks should be over soon.", TikTok is not the only app by ByteDance that requires its users to pay for certain features. One example of this is the subscription function for WeChat, a popular messaging service in China and certain other countries. This has led to some people being very concerned about ByteDance's business practices and whether or not it is fair for people to be required to pay for all of the features that are offered on TikTok's platform. In addition, critics have noted that these subscription fees may be used by ByteDance to influence user behaviour and/or monitor users' activities in order to find out what content they are interested in and why they are interested in it. For example, it is possible that people might be required to subscribe to TikTok in order to listen to certain types of music which ByteDance wants people to hear.",
