In 2003, a new logo was introduced to represent the company: it consisted of a white capital letter "O" on a black background. The logo underwent several changes under various visual design changes during this period. The "O" was sundered into two smaller, green squares with rounded bottoms that closely resembled the shape of the letter "L", which remained in use until 2010. In 2009, ROBLOX released an entirely new logo based on the previous one: this iteration featured a black capitalized "R" on a white background. It was designed to feature the company's name without any visual association to the original logo. The previous logo is still in use today, albeit with a thicker frame.

In February 2014, Big Fish Games released ROBLOX for iPhone, iPad and iPod Touch devices. The game was pulled from the App Store in August 2014. In August 2016, ROBLOX launched a group messaging app, which uses an algorithm that allows users to receive messages from anyone they have played with or interacted with in any way, even if the users have not been added to each other's friends list.

In January 2016, the Roblox developers said they will be working with an external security firm to enforce a set of rules, and would only support third-party software that is approved by their partners.
