One example of a troll game, created in 2005, was "Uppercut". This involved players being knocked into the air when they attempted to create their character. However, when the player hits the ground, they were shown a message saying that the creator of this game had disabled their inventory and that they had been defeated.

Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from Great! They make you have a membership, but it's free. I like that you can build and edit your own characters. You can also play others' custom games. You can also make your own games if you want Rated 4 out of 5 by Anonymous from Great! It has many things to do and it is definitely worth trying out! Rated 1 out of 5 by Anonymous from Horrible The game is worthless because of all the scamming on the app and its updates. Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from I love it This is a great game that would keep you occupied.

Her parents did not approve of this decision and they started a petition on Change.org to get their daughter unbanned back on Roblox. They stated that her ban would be a violation of their privacy rights as well as an infringement upon her civil rights, as a minor. The family requested that Roblox reverse its ban of Arielle and instead give her a warning to stop future harassment, which she committed while playing "Minecraft". The petition received more than 50,000 signatures in less than 12 hours. However, it was then reported by users that the petition had been removed from the website soon after it began. As soon as the petition was received by Roblox, it was announced that her account would be reviewed and further action would be taken in response to how she had "been conducting herself online".

Afterwards, ROBLOX began taking action on these cases and will be using an automated system to monitor all transactions for suspicious activity. [43]ROBLOX has also been known to restrict the number of items that a player can sell. This is because many people would sell off too much of their collection to gain more currency, which can make it harder for other players to find popular items.[44]
